

HUNTER'S PARADISE LODGE #85

Greetings from the East... Worshipful Master William Enloe, PM

Brothers,

First and foremost, I must apologize to the lodge brothers for not submitting the Master Architect on time and causing us to miss out on this award for the first time since we have been chartered.

I would like to commit to you, the Lodge members, that I will keep an accurate record of the items being performed for next year's submissions and will pass along to the next term's Master the completed form, so we do not miss this award two years in a row.

Secondly, as the Lodge prepares for Grand Communication, I look to the South and am honored to serve you as your Worshipful Master as well as the out going Grand Chaplin. I will be in the Grand East next to Most Worshipful Craig Gross and represent our Lodge well during the communication. I look forward to seeing the next term's officers be installed and represent the Grand Line for next year's Masonic year.

We have many articles that are coming to a vote and many appear to be clarifying our Masonic Code, so it is good to see that many of our brothers are reading the Masonic Code, asking questions about its intensions, and writing legislation for changing items that they feel need to be addressed. It shows that apathy is not present in Arizona Masonry and your brothers are here to ensure the correct legislation is brought up to a vote and the good of Masonry

From the Secretary's Desk...

Brethren All,

What does the Secretary need to do to prepare for Grand Lodge Annual Communications. We make sure the Officers of the Lodge and the members have all the Legislation and Carryovers that will be handled and voted on at the Communications. Encourage everyone to attend a session. As a secretary we are responsible to each and every member to keep their records current, assist them when necessary and keep them informed on what is going happening with Masonry in Arizona.

As a Brother attending the Communications I look forward to listening to the various reports turned in by all the Grand Lodge Committees, listening to all the legislation, the pros and cons on each piece and recording the results.

At every Communication we meet new Masons and renew friendships from previous years. Meeting new Secretaries and listening to them helps me learn and understand about different situations that may come up in Lodges. Building lasting friendships that will last a lifetime.

Each member of the Lodge can benefit from attending a session of the Grand Lodge Communications. The new $20.00 registration fee for non-voting Masons makes it affordable and Saturdays are a great day to attend if you only have the weekends off.

On the Level...

By Mark Brown PM, Senior Warden

Greetings from the West,

I always look forward to the annual Grand Lodge Communication. While only pedestal officers, designated representatives and Past Masters are allowed to vote, it is open to all Master Masons.

It is the time to celebrate the accomplishments and service of our current Grand Lodge officers, recognize those that went above and beyond their call of duty to improve our beloved fraternity, and to welcome a new set of officers to lead us forward.

With due order and propriety, we will discuss and vote on the legislation before us to decide which is best for the craft that will build and strengthen us, and that which will not.

It is also a time to rekindle friendships with a few laughs, to share our successes and challenges both personally and with our respective Lodges, and forge new friendships along the way.

As we depart and return to our respective places of abode, we leave with a renewed spirit to support our new Grand Lodge offices in their endeavors, implement new legislation within our Lodge, carry messages back to our Brethren, forge new bonds with other Lodges and celebrate a new Grand Lodge Masonic year.

Fraternally,

Mark Brown
Senior Warden

will prevail.

Lastly, I want to applaud you for all the work you have done and continue to do for our Lodge. We may not have brought home an award, but believe me, we are all doing what it is right for a thriving Lodge to prosper in Masonry. You should be extremely proud of your efforts and there are no words that can explain the sorry I feel for letting you down.

Fraternally
