Greetings from the East... Worshipful Master William Enloe, PM

Brothers,

There are many things that a thriving Lodge does that shows them as prospering better than other Lodges, but one thing that cannot be neglected is the attendance of its members.

We the officers and members of Hunter's Paradise have prided ourselves as being warm and welcoming to our members and visitors. I am sure that not many may want to come down to a Lodge that strictly discusses business and does not favor the softer side of Masonry, which is the fellowship.

There is not a good way to measure the strength of the fellowship. However, it is easier to feel we are doing the right thing when the Lodge has a large number of members and visitors on the sidelines. For this reason, I know we are doing well because I see many faces in seats at our Stated and degree meetings.

Of course, we can still make room for more. So, if you have not been to Lodge in a few months (or even if you have), please come on down and see what your new and old friends are up to. Hunter's Paradise #85 Lodge has over 100 members and it is your Lodge. Therefore, without you there it just does not feel the same. We miss you and have not seen you in a while, so come down and say "Hello".

Please remember that a house is not a home without the members of its family. Therefore, we need you to make our

Brethren All,

This is a tough topic. We have 107 members and 5 working Candidates. We miss each and everyone that we do not see at a practice, installation, stated meeting, Degree or special event.

Where are the affiliated members that joined Hunters Paradise because they wanted to be here instead of at the Lodge they belonged to. Now too many of them do not attend here.

Sponsors are not attending after they bring in a new candidate. Eventually the new Master Mason becomes one of the missing.

We get out of the organizations what we put into them. Have we learned what Masonry is and what it can do for us

On the Level...

By Mark Brown PM, Senior Warden

Greetings from the West,

One aspect of the Lodge that I enjoy the most is spending time with the Brethren; good men from a diverse walk of life, a friendly smile, the grip of a handshake, conversation over dinner or on the sidelines to celebrate your good news and console the not-so-good.

Unfortunately, life happens! Whether it is a situation of sickness or distress, a conflict with our normal vocations or the priorities of our families, the opportunity to attend meetings is challenged with other priorities.

While we miss your presence, that doesn't mean we haven't forgotten you; hoping all is well and, if not, is there is anything the Lodge or your fellow Brethren could do.

If you haven't been able to attend a Lodge meeting recently, we'd like to hear from you. Let us know your situation (MarkBrownAZ@live.com). We want you to be a part of the Lodge, whether through Lodge meetings or social gatherings that are being considered. Remember, Brotherly Love and Relief are 2 of our principal tenants.

Fraternally,

Mark Brown

 family complete by coming down and tell us how you are doing. We want to know what you have been up to lately and we want to hear all the new and exciting things you have done during the summer. We would love to hear about the different things your family has been doing, so we can include them in our family's thoughts. You are a vital member to this family and we are not whole without you.

Come on down with the rest of you family, in our lives? Do we practice being a Master Mason?

I know all the above sounds cruel and harsh. Brotherly love and truth is what we all want. We want our Members to attend Lodge as often as they can but how many really put forth the effort to even put us on the calendar as a reminder. We each learn something new by attending and sharing with our Brothers.

Is your Lodge doing everything it can to encourage you to attend? If we do not get feedback how will we know? Please tell us in 25 words or less why you are not attending Lodge.

I would like to say that I have seen everyone of our Members each year at a Lodge meeting or special event. As a Member you are our life blood and the heart of our being.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

George Mather PM
